

The Anti-Kerry special that Sinclair wants to air is clearly a corporate political decision biased to Sinclair's financial interests. There either needs to be similar coverage from the opposition, like "Up the River", or this biased airing should be blocked.

Nicole English